

It is important to preserve Wisconsin's No Call List. If companies wish to contact me, let them send me something in the mail. This makes it easier to verify that they are legitimate enterprises, and allows me to review their literature at a time of my choosing.